The Spring Festival, Chinese New Year, is the most important festival for all of us. All family members get together on New Year Eve to have a big meal. At the same time, everyone celebrates together. At about 12 o'clock, some parents and children light crackers. The whole sky is lighted brightly. We may watch the fireworks excitedly. How busy it is!

On the first early morning of one year, many senior citizens get up early and they stick the reversed Fu or hang some couplets on the front door. Some houses windows are stucked on red paper cuttings.

The Chinese New Year lasts fifteen days. So during the fifteen days, we always visit our relatives from door to door. At that time, children are the happiest because they can get many red packets from their parents, grandparents, uncles, aunts and so on. The last day of the Chinese New Year is another festival. It is named the Lantern Festival.

So the Chinese New Year comes to the end.
